"STANDING ROOM ONLY" FOR H.S. XMAS FESTIVAL

Near Capacity Audience Again Commends Work Of Pupils And Teachers In Holiday Treat; Classes Close Wednesday, Resume January 4

The community's appreciation of the annual Christmas Festival at the high school was demonstrated Tuesday evening when a near capacity audience filled the main floor of the auditorium and overflowed into the balconies where late arrivals stood at points of vantage rather than take the few remaining seats where the view of the stage was not so satisfactory.

The festival was a repetition of the successes in other years and seemed to gain in appeal this year by the simplicity of the stage setting and the introduction of more elaborate and well-planned stage lighting.

Classes at the high school will close this afternoon for the year-end holiday vacation and will resume again on Wednesday, January 4. Meanwhile, workmen engaged in completion of the school enlargement project, launched this fall, will take advantage of the dismissal to make important changes in the heating system incident to the building project.

The members of the large audience who attended the festival were unanimous in their praise for the entire presentation as a unit and paid compliment, too, to the members of the faculty who were in charge of various sections of the program.

W. F. Blodgett Funeral Set

Services To Be Thursday At One O'Clock From Memory Chapel

The funeral services for William F. Blodgett, 44, killed in a Tuesday morning automobile wreck near Lotus, will be held at one o'clock Thursday afternoon from Memory Chapel.

The Rev. Rex Barron will conduct the service and in recognition of Mr. Blodgett's prominence in veterans' affairs in the county, the plans contemplate the assistance of members of Sierra Nevada Post No. 2680, V. F. W., of which Mr. Blodgett was a past commander.

Burial will be at the cemetery at Coloma.

While arrangements for the funeral services were completed, preparations also went forward looking toward holding a formal inquest to establish the cause of death. This will be held at the courthouse at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Coroner A. J. Orelli said this afternoon that his investigation indicates the wrecking of Mr. Blodgett's car was purely accidental and it is supposed, on the basis of what officials have been able to learn of the tragedy, that this will be the substance of the verdict of the coroner's jury.

Diamond Springs School Xmas Fete Tonight

The pupils of the school at Diamond Springs will hold their annual Christmas program at the schoolhouse tonight, marking the close of school for the year and holidays.

WINTER GREETINGS HALF OF U. S.

By UNITED PRESS

Winter officially greeted the western half of the nation Wednesday with a varying assortment of hail, snow, fog and rain, from the Pacific northwest to the Gulf of Mexico.

Temperatures were not extreme and many areas were not affected because of scattered cloud formations. But the contrast to previous mild December weather was sharp.

Heavy mountain snowstorms and valley fogs stopped air traffic in the northwest. Ice made highways dangerous. Southern California and other regions had electrical storms, rain and hail. Los Angeles felt a sudden temperature drop after a week of almost incessant rain set a December record of seven inches, twice normal.

A trace of snow fell in Pasadena before hail whitened the ground. Rain melted it. Citrus growers lighted their smudge pots in protection against frost as skies cleared.

The snow extended south from the Rockies into New Mexico and eastward into Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. It brought fresh hope for wheat growers in that section of the nation's "bread basket." They said the snow fall, four to eight inches, would save a winter crop that laid dry in seed beds since planting early in the fall.

BOB PATTERSON WINNER IN BLIND BOGEY ON SUNDAY

In spite of none too favorable weather, a large field was entered in the blind bogey tournament at the Placerville Golf course Sunday and saw Bob Patterson gallop home with a net of 74 to take the prize.

Patterson, who hits from the "wrong" side of the tee, was closely pressed by J. G. Hearn, whose net was 75.

Other near par shooters included A. W. Wilson with 78, M. E. Wright with 76, Bron Smith with 72 and M. T. Kelly with 76.

Some others who failed to turn in their usual good game were Ben Larson with 81, Harry Jasper, 87, Al Beams with 86 and Lloyd Cannon, who retired at the end of the first nine.

All were enthusiastic over the condition of the course and look forward to an interesting season. Among recent additions to the membership are C. J. McMurray, Ronard Cook, A. W. Wilson, R. H. Weidman, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, L. W. Moore, M. E. Wright, Joe Hearn and Bob Patterson.

THEATER PARTY TONIGHT HAS PROMISE OF LARGE AUDIENCE

The "Christmas basket fund" theater party of Placerville Twenty-Three Club, to be held at the Empire Theater tonight, gives promise of a large attendance and generous support for the club's Christmas basket fund.

This is according to Dana Muddick, chairman of the committee in charge.

The members of the club have been selling tickets to tonight's show and, under an agreement with the theater management, a share of the proceeds of the ticket sale will go to the club for their basket fund. The basket fund does not benefit from the ticket sales at the theatre box office.

American Legion Has Xmas Tree Tonight

The annual Christmas tree party of El Dorado Post No. 119, American Legion, will be held in connection with the meeting of the post tonight at the War Veterans' Memorial Building.

Doomed Child Is Life of Party

Death is far from the thoughts of little Dorothy Lewis as she blows out the candles on her birthday cake in her home in Queens, New York City. A rapidly-spreading bone cancer in the eight-year-old child's right thigh led to physicians' prediction that she will die in eight months. If the leg is amputated they give her one chance in ten of survival. The ninth candle on the cake is "for good health."

NEW LEGISLATION MAY ECHO GRAND JURY'S INQUIRY

Flurry Of Bills Designed To Curb Lobbying, Restrict Activity Of Lawyer-Legislators, Expected As Result Of Sacramento Probe

By JOHN W. DUNLAP

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, (U.P.)—Charges of corruption in the legislature are often made but seldom proved. With this thought in mind, the Sacramento grand jury has just completed 19 months of investigation of the legislative and lobbying picture in California.

What the jury found is almost certain to result in a flurry of bills designed to further regulate lobbying, curb lawyer-legislators from representing business interests affected by legislation and prohibit the lawmakers from practicing before state board and commissions. Many observers feel that legal practices have been abused to the point where regulation may be a result.

California legislators are paid $1200 a year and many are forced to maintain their businesses in addition. Attorneys see nothing unethical in representing private clients on a straight legal basis and feel their knowledge of legislative affairs better equips them to appear before state bodies.

When asked in a United Press survey if the lawyer-legislator status should remain unchanged, assemblymen were exactly divided in sentiment while the senate gave a pronounced vote against the practice.

The grand jury wrote a scathing denunciation on the basis "it is obvious no man can serve two masters and the state is entitled to wholehearted loyalty from its legislature." A recommendation was made that laws be enacted to require such lawyer to file a statement, under oath, listing all retainers they or their associates receive which may directly or indirectly relate to matters that may come before the legislature.

Lobbying has become "big business" in California. The mass of legislation—nearly 4,000 bills, resolved (Continued on page 3)

Outdoor Xmas Party On Saturday Afternoon

On Saturday afternoon, December 24th, at 1:30 p. m. the children of Pollock Pines will have an outdoor Christmas party and Christmas tree.

The program of Christmas carols and recitations by the school children will be under the supervision of Mrs. William Baumhoff. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Royett and Raymond Neiring.

The program will be held at "Frenchy's" the resort operated by Mrs. Marguerite Lang, who has arranged to have Santa Claus present and will see that each child will get a Christmas sock filled with goodies.

Nation's Xmas Tree "Planted" 5,000 Years Ago

By ROBERT F. WILCOX

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

GENERAL GRANT NATIONAL PARK, (U.P.)—A little band of pilgrims braving snow and cold will worship on Christmas Day at the shrine of the nation's Christmas tree, the towering General Grant tree, high in the Sierra Nevada mountains.

The ceremony will mark the 14th successive year in which sacred services have been held at the foot of the 267-foot giant which started from seed more than 5,000 years ago—centuries before the Christ Child was born in Bethlehem.

As the worshippers who have trekked from the warm, green valleys of California into the mountains, sing and pray, their service will be broadcast from Fresno, Calif., over a western network.

Scared by fire and on the onslaught of wind and rain through 50 centuries, the General Grant stands out in a forest of giants as the natural shrine for a practice that has been carried on for 13 successive years despite frequent wind and snow storms and blizzards.

The General Grant tree is the second largest in the world, being exceeded only by the General Sherman tree, which is 272 feet tall. The "nation's Christmas tree" is 267 feet tall and measures 33 feet in diameter at the base, 16 feet at a height of 60 feet and 12 feet at a height of 200 feet.

AUCTION FRUIT SALES SCORED

Orange Handler Flays System As Causing High Price To Consumer

CHICAGO, (U.P.)—Bruce McDaniel, general manager of the Mutual Orange Distributors, last night denounced the sale of oranges and grapefruit by auction and said it caused high prices to the consumer.

He spoke over a Mutual Broadcasting System hookup in connection with a meeting of the National Citrus merchandising committee which closed Monday.

"Additional handling required by the auction system," he said, "indicates that cartage costs and margins in New York City run to about $237 per car in addition to the regular auction charges."

"The same oranges could be delivered in New York City retail via direct shipment to a warehouse for less than half that amount."

He said that much of the fruit sold at auction is hauled to outlying towns, thus adding costs which the consumer pays in higher prices.

"If all the oranges sold by one California shipped during the 1937-38 season through auction had been handled direct to warehouses, thence to retail stores, and the saving realized on cartage and margins was equal to that which appears to be possible in New York, the total saving would have been around $2,250,000 not including auction and receiving agent charges of over $800,000."

Conservation Office Crows

Placerville Becomes Headquarters For Total Of 6 Counties

Word has been received from the state office of the Agricultural Conservation Association that Inyo and Mono counties will be handled from the Placerville headquarters after the first of the year. B. E. Haslam, secretary, will leave on Monday for Colville, where he will meet Mr. Brame of the Kern County Agricultural Conservation Association, and make arrangements to complete the transfer, and also meet with the farmers and rangers of Mono county and discuss the provisions of the 1939 Agricultural program with them.

On Wednesday, December 28th, there will be a meeting at Bishop with the farmers of Inyo county to arrange the details of the transfer for that county.

This transfer has been arranged with the thought that increased efficiency and economy will result with the same type of farming and range work in one area under one office instead of scattered around among several valley offices, which are mostly concerned with cotton and other special crops.

This will make a total of six counties with headquarters in Placerville, administered under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938.

FINDING FOR PLAINTIFF IN AUTO ACCIDENT DAMAGE SUIT

In an opinion filed by Judge George H. Thompson during the week, damages are awarded to Thomas and Thelma Jinkerson against Miles Cutler, as arising out of an automobile accident in which cars owned by the parties were involved on July 2, last.

The accident took place near the railroad station.

The court awarded damages of $300 to the plaintiff Thomas Jinkerson and damages of $850 to the plaintiff Thelma Jinkerson, and also awarded them damages for the repair of their car and for the payment of hospital bills and doctor's fees.

The plaintiffs were represented by Attorneys Henry S. Lyon and Robert E. Roberts.

Among those who were at Sacramento Saturday were Mrs. G. C. Barnard and Mrs. Eleanor Possati; Mrs. L. J. Anderson and two daughters; Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Gross, Dr. S. B. Shepard, Mrs. P. P. Volz and Miss Kathleen Kachuck.

DIRECTORS FOR ASS'N. NAMED

L. W. Veerkamp New Member Succeeding J. F. Madden; All Others Re-Elected

The newly chosen board of directors of the Placerville Fruit Growers' Association will meet "within the next few days" to organize for the new year.

The directors were chosen at an election held at the regular annual meeting of the membership on Tuesday at the Federated Church in which only one change was made in the board. L. W. Veerkamp was elected to succeed J. F. Madden. Mr. Madden had been president of the board during the past year.

Other members of the board, all of whom were re-elected by the membership, are James A. Irving, John B. Hughes, Leo Akin, John Larsen, Frank Toombs and R. A. Patterson.

As was reported by this newspaper Tuesday, the meeting of the membership convened for a morning business session and the distribution of earnings checks aggregating $58,000. There was a turkey dinner at noon at the church parlors, followed by an afternoon meeting at which I. J. Woodin, sales manager for the California Fruit Exchange, and Henry Cole, traffic manager, spoke on problems of the industry as related to their specific departments.

The result of the election of directors, which had been held earlier in the day, was announced upon the completion of the counting of the ballots later in the afternoon.

"HOMECOMING WEEKS" CONFERENCE AT SACRAMENTO

A conference of all Northern California communities who will join during the coming year in holding "Homecoming Weeks" as a part of the general San Francisco exposition and Sacramento centennial program, has been called for Thursday afternoon, December 29, at 2 o'clock at the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce by A. S. Dudley, executive manager.

Mr. Dudley's call for the meeting says in part:

"It is particularly desirable to have present not only the Secretary of each Chamber of Commerce, the chairman of each homecoming week and the editor of each newspaper, but also any and all interested persons in the various communities."

"It has been proposed that a map somewhat similar to the one published in our booklet 'The Romance of California' be prepared and broadly distributed. On this map would be featured the various historical points of tourist interest, recreational areas, as well as ways and means of reaching the places."

"As Sacramento is at the crossroads of travel, we are desirous of assisting in every possible way to divert the tourist travel to all communities in the Golden Empire."

"You are urged to put forth a special effort to attend this meeting. We will appreciate your letting us know by return mail if you can attend and who will come with you."

Dr. Marshall Kelly arrived Tuesday evening from St. Louis to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Kelly. Dr. Kelly is a resident surgeon on the staff of the St. Louis City Hospital.

STREET DANCE CONTEMPLATED

Program Lists Midnight Show, N. S. G. W. Annual Ball And Dinner Dance As Features

"Celebrate New Year's Eve in Placerville" is the slogan of the committee in charge of what is planned as a community welcome to 1939, with a street carnival and other special events scheduled in the county seat on New Year's eve, Saturday, December 31.

Plans of the committee, formulated Monday night, were given a preliminary announcement on Tuesday. Committee members, led by J. H. Rhodes, as chairman, reported Wednesday morning that the preparations have advanced to a point where a general outline of the attractions of the evening can be given.

These will include an hour's concert by the county band on Main Street opening at 8:30 o'clock, followed by street dancing to recorded music which will be broadcast by a public address system. The committee will ask the city council to reserve Main Street between the bell tower and Coloma Street for dancers.

Meanwhile, other regularly scheduled events are being incorporated in the advertising of the committee calling attention to the evening.

The fifty-eighth annual ball of Placerville Parlor No. 9, N. S. G. W. will be held at the I. O. O. F. hall with Frank Dames and His Gang providing the music.

Hotel Raffles has announced a dinner dance to add to the merriment and the Empire Theater has scheduled a midnight show.

Bears Defeat Gael Five

Placerville Fans See Thrilling Finish In Game At Sacramento

Almost a score of Placerville basketball fans returned from Sacramento late Tuesday night still thrilled by having seen the University of California defeat St. Mary's 45 to 33 in an intercollegiate basketball game at the Sacramento Memorial Auditorium.

The score was tied 33-33 with five minutes to go and St. Mary's had been ahead or even with the giant Bears all the way. Suddenly six successive baskets were sunk by California and the see-saw game turned into a rout. While the Gaels had superior strategy and floor plays, the six-foot-plus Bears controlled the ball and had many more shots.

St. Mary's dominated the first half by making 15 points in a row to none for California in the early minutes. The Gaels led at half-time, 19-14. The count was tied four times in the last half before the Bears spurred to victory. Chalmers, California forward, was high man with 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonetti, of the French Creek were among callers in the county seat on Wednesday.

Sports Heights Of Year Stormed By 3 Men, Horse And Ball Club

NEW YORK (UP)—Up to the peaks of sports in 1938 marched three men, a horse and a baseball team.

It was a year for stand-out performers, probably the greatest year for individual stars since the golden days of Dempsey, Ruth, Jones and Tilden.

General performance was excellent in all sports, but the glory and—in all cases—the gold, went to: Henry Armstrong, only man to hold three world boxing titles at the same time.

Sammy Snead, biggest money winner of the year among golf professionals and a man whose slippery swing may bring him eventual recognition as a greater golfer than the great Bob Jones.

Seabiscuit, a stout-hearted champion of the tracks who climaxed a sparkling season by defeating War Admiral in a heart-stopping match race at Pimlico.

Don Budge, who made a grand slam of all the major tennis titles in the world, dominated America's successful defense of the Davis Cup and then cashed in his chips for $75,000 to open the new year as a professional.

The New York Yankees, winners of the American League pennant and victors in four straight games over the Chicago Cubs in the World Series—only team ever to win three consecutive world championships.

Except for Budge, who campaigned through 1938 as an amateur, it was a year for the money players, for the professionals who make a business of games.

C. Flynn, director of the play, "The Birthday of a King;" Miss Beatrice Ramm, director of the glee club; Charles W. Ball, leader of the orchestra; and H. N. T. Schultz, who supervised the lighting.

The program opened with selections by the orchestra and continued with the glee club in processional singing, "Oh Come, All Ye Faithful." Miss Betty Bergantz played the chimes as the cathedral candles dimmed and Terry Thompson gave the prologue to the play.

The glee club was then heard in a group of three numbers following which the play, in three scenes, was presented. During the presentation the glee club was heard in several numbers which are associated in the public mind with the Christmas season. Among these were "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks," "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "Silent Night," "We Three Kings of the Orient," and the inspiring "Joy To The World."

As is customary, no charge for admission was made and those who attended were given the opportunity to participate in a free will offering which was turned over to the local Red Cross chapter for community welfare work.

Auto Agency Staff In Dinner Party

The employees of the Russell J. Wilson automobile agency, Manager Allen Otto and Owner Russell Wilson, met at a dinner party at Hotel Raffles on Tuesday evening.

The occasion, one of a series of regular gatherings of the staff, took the form of a Christmas party and the jollification of the evening included a mock Christmas tree.

If you can come away from the window and stop watching for Santa Claus at this early date, you'll probably be glad the jubilee singers are on KGO at six o'clock. Another radio theater, KSPO, same time.

Then, Amos and Andy at the same old stand, followed by Lum and Abner at 8:15. KSPO and Paul Whiteman and Tommy Dorsey running opposition to each other. KSPO and KPO.

SEAL SALE FOR FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS ENDS ON SUNDAY

"The annual seal sale which finances three local tuberculosis clinics and their fight against the plague closes today, Christmas Day. Only one day remains for the sale of seals to procure funds for the fight against tuberculosis."

This remains an open letter to A. R. Clifton, a former tuberculosis superintendent in Angeles County.

"This is a call to every resident to take a part. Those who did not take a part in the seal sale are urged to do so. Thanking you for your contribution to the fight against tuberculosis."

SEAL SALE FOR XMAS TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS ENDS ON SUNDAY

"The annual Christmas Seal Sale which finances California's sixty-three local tuberculosis associations and their fight to control the white plague closes this Sunday, Christmas Day. Only a few remain in which to procure and pay for the Christmas Seals."

This remainder to all appeared in an open letter received today from A. R. Clifton, a director of the California Tuberculosis Association and superintendent of schools of Los Angeles County.

"This is a campaign in which every resident of the state should take a part," Clifton declared. "Those who did not receive Christmas Seals through the mails at Thanksgiving time may still procure them from their city or county tuberculosis association."

"Local groups all over the state report that many of the seals sent to regular subscribers are still unaccounted for. Christmas Seals that are not paid for do not fight tuberculosis. The funds represented by the unheard from contributors are urgently needed to protect the homes of all Californians for the ensuing year."

Outlining the progress which has been achieved in tuberculosis control in the past thirty years during which Christmas Seals have been sold in California, Clifton said: "When almost everyone had been exposed to tuberculosis, the problem was complex. Health workers could apply only general measures in fighting the disease, such as building hospitals and sanatoriums, and insuring better housing and working conditions."

"During the past five years, however, an effort has been made to uncover early cases before symptoms have appeared, especially among our younger population. Tuberculin tests have been given to approximately 270,000 school children, and students showing evidence of infection have been X-rayed. More than 300 cases of adult type tuberculosis were uncovered in these surveys last year."

Merriam Urges Cheer For Less Fortunate

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—Gov. Frank P. Merriam today urged Californians to "bring business and cheer to the hearts of those less fortunate" in proclaiming "1938 Yule season."

The Governor asked communities to cooperate in out-of-door Christmas celebrations and lighted trees.

It is estimated that 200,000 lambs have been fattened on Ladino clover in the Oakdale district this year.

New Laws May Hit Lobbying

lutions and orders of business in 1937—almost requires business concerns to have an observer in Sacramento. There is always the question where observing ends and excessive lobbying begins and the jury recommendation was specific in this connection.

The jury found "an appalling situation" and an "iniquitous system which strikes at the heart of democracy and free government." Evidence presented showed without question, the jury said, "that very large sums of money have been paid by private interests to professional lobbyists . . . as to suggest a bartering with legislators for special privileges and even actual corruption, although that has not as yet been proved." Recommendation was made that lobbyists register their interests and amount paid for their services.

Much of the jury information came from Arthur H. Samish, San Francisco lobbyist who paid income taxes on $101,000 from various concerns in 1937. At least two attorney-assemblymen were on his payroll. Whether or not the legislature "cracks down," its members spoke overwhelmingly for continuation of the corruption inquiry. Some suggested the attorney general should step into the picture.

The question is a "hot" one and should provoke much legislative discussion in the next six months.

PETTY THEFT CHARGES AGAINST JUDGE ARE SETTLED

SUSANVILLE, (AP)—A dispute that led to filing of petty theft charges against George Wood, justice of the peace at Madeline township, has been settled out of court, it was learned today.

The charges were filed by H. W. Connelly, owner of a sawmill at Terno. They involved allegations that Wood hauled away lumber under attachment for labor claims from Connelly's sawmill.

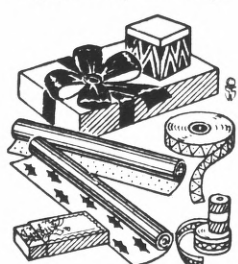

Wood said he hauled away the lumber under terms of an order which was to pay part of a $260 board and groceries bill owed him by Connelly. Connelly agreed to pay the money.

Scout Troops' Christmas Party On Thursday

Diamond Springs troop of Boy Scouts will do its Christmas "good turn" by holding a party at the Diamond Springs school on Thursday evening, to which the children of Shingle, El Dorado and Diamond Springs have been invited.

Scoutmaster Charles Doe and other civic leaders of the community are assisting the Scouts in their preparations for the event, which promises to be one long to be remembered by the Boy Scouts and their little guests.
